Statement of Procedure

Quinto Crane & Plant Ltd is committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in any part of its business or that of suppliers. The Slavery and Human Trafficking procedure reflects Quinto's commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all business relationships.

Quinto will take steps to ensure that its statutory duties are met at all times through the allocation of sufficient human, physical and financial resources.

As members of several accrediting bodies, Quinto is committed to the highest professional standards.

Where necessary, the services of competent persons from outside the business will be used to ensure that the company's statutory duties are met.

This procedure provides all the steps required to comply with Section 54(1) Modern Slavery Act 2015 and should be viewed in conjunction with Quinto's Right to Work Procedure.

This procedure, will be reviewed at least annually, whenever necessary, and revised in the light of legislative, business or other changes.

Due Diligence

Quinto are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chain or any part of our business. Our Anti-Slavery Policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships.

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk:-

- Wherever possible we build long standing relationships with suppliers and customers making clear our expectations of business behaviour.
- We encourage the reporting of concerns whilst protecting whistle blowers.

Quinto have a ZERO Tolerance to slavery and human trafficking, expecting all those within our supply chain to adhere to our values.
